Dear Janet:

Just a note to update you on your favorite subject. Went to court about two weeks ago against Mr. Sesko on an unlawful detainer case. After going through 5 Judges (good story), the Judge decided to give Bill another month to remove his stuff. Even though he had been notified to do so in February. He will again delay, so I have another court date of August 20th to assess damages and get permission to allow the sheriff to help us remove the junk.

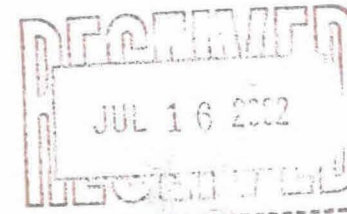

Will keep you advised. If you get any better ideas let me know.

Cordially,

Paul McConkey
